GLYNDEBOURNE

28th March 1999

I am delighted, on behalf of Glyndebourne, to welcome you all here this afternoon.

My huge and grateful thanks are to all my Glyndebourne and Burrswood colleagues who have done all the work, and of course to David Angus, the soloists, choir and the orchestra.

I'm sure we are in for a treat.

Thank you all,

Mary Christie.
